

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 2022

5:30PM-8:00PM

Outside Jefferson Middle School, near the Garden

5:30pm – Opening

5:30-5:35pm – Welcome from Ms Boggan

5:35-5:50pm – TJ Orchestra, performing: Moonlight Tango, Midnight Tango, Airiang (Korea), Noche de Estrellas (Mexico), Banuwa (West Africa)

5:50-6:00pm – Transition

6:00-6:15pm – TJ Jazz Band, St. Thomas, Georgia on my Mind, Now's the Time

6:15-6:25pm – Transition

6:25-6:40pm – Mongolian musicians

6:40-6:45pm – Transition

6:45-6:55pm – Student fashion show (Mongolia first, then Afghanistan)

6:55-7:00pm – Transition

7:00-7:20pm – GET Dance Company, dances from Colombia, India, Brazil and Middle East

7:20-7:30pm – Transition

7:30-8:00pm – Prakriti Dance

8:00 p.m. Ending

ABOUT THE PERFORMERS

Thank you to all our performers

TJ Orchestra will perform Moonlight Tango, Midnight Tango, Airiang (Korea), Noche de Estrellas (Mexico), Banuwa (West Africa).

TJ Jazz Band will perform St Thomas (style of music from Trinidad and Tobago), Georgia on my Mind (USA), Now's the Time (USA).

"GET Dance" which stands for Global Expressions Through Dance. This dance company is based in Washington DC with members from around the DMV area, founded by Carolina Hernandez and Sergio Guzman in 2018. They will present Colombian Cumbia, Pasillo and Bambuco from the Andean Colombian Region, Champeta from the Colombian Caribbean coast, Baladi from Egypt, and Bollywood and Bhangra from India.

Mongolian Musicians - three students of local musician Khatanbold Urlagbaatar, who will perform two traditional Mongolian songs. Their instrument is the horsehead fiddle, or morin-khuur, a traditional Mongolian bowed stringed instrument with strings of horsehair.

Prakriti Dance is an innovative performing company that showcases the Indian Dance form Bharata Natyam. Co-founded by Kasi Aysola and Madhvi Venkatesh, Prakriti Dance takes the movement vocabulary of yesteryears and interprets modern day themes bringing relevance and context to the ever evolving Indian art

